

Welcome to Mass
St Margaret Mary,
Birmingham

The 18th Sunday in Ordinary Time

2nd August, 2020

Priest: ✠ In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit

All: Amen

Priest: The Lord be with you

All: And with your Spirit.

Confiteor: I confess to almighty God
and to you, my brothers and sisters,
that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words,
in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, through my fault,
through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Priest: May Almighty God have mercy upon us, forgive us our sins
and bring us to everlasting life.

Amen.

Gloria in excelsis

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord
God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, only begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us, you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer, you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First reading: Isaiah 55.1-3. Come to the water.

Psalm response: You open wide your hand O Lord, you grant our desires.

Second reading: Romans 8.35, 37-
39. *Nothing can come between us
and the love of Christ.*

Gospel acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia. Blessings on the king who *comes in the name of the Lord.

Peace in heaven and glory in the highest heavens!*

Gospel: Matthew 14.13-21. The feeding of the five thousand.

Apostles Creed I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only son, Our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body and life everlasting. Amen.

Offertory hymn suspended at this time

Pray Brethren that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God the almighty Father.

All: May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church.

Sanctus: Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts. Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

The Mystery of faith. All: We proclaim your death, O Lord, and profess your resurrection, until you come again.

Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those who are called to his supper of the Lamb.

All: Lord I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

The priest will then hold up the Host to the Congregation and say audibly "The Body of Christ" to which the people should together respond "Amen."

In the same way, he elevates the chalice and says, "The Blood of Christ" and again the people respond "Amen."

*The painting of St John Henry Newman with Blessed Dominic Barberi has now been installed in the Newman Gallery. This painting depicts the reception of St John Henry Newman into the Catholic Church on 9th October, 1845. On the left is Blessed Dominic Barberi, an Italian missionary priest (Passionist order) and on the right is Saint John Henry Newman. The location is Littlemore, near Oxford. Dominic Barberi had travelled to Littlemore by open coach in bad weather, which is why he was warming himself by the fire (centre; the fire is also a symbol of the Holy Spirit). To the right is the desk and quill pen Newman used to write the book, An Essay on the Development of Christian Doctrine. In 1846 Newman moved to Birmingham, where he first lived at Maryvale (the original Oscott College) and then later he moved to Hagley Road to found the Oratory of St Philip Neri, which still stands today. With the encouragement of Bishop Wiseman, Newman was ordained a Catholic priest in 1847. Newman was made a Cardinal in 1879. When he died in 1890, 15,000 people lined the streets of Birmingham. Barberi was beatified by Pope Paul VI in 1963. Newman was beatified by Pope Benedict on his visit to Birmingham in 2010 and canonised by Pope Francis on 13 October, 2019 in Rome.

*Congratulations to Sheila Wyatt on her 95th birthday (10th July) and John Glasgow on his 90th birthday (5th July) and Dot Parkes on her 80th (19th July)

* www.portalmag.co.uk is now out for August.

* Pope Francis' prayer intention for August: We pray for all those who work and live from the sea, among them sailors, fishermen & families.

* Ebere Benson-Ezeh is making and selling washable facemasks for £4. Speak to her direct on 07446 182458 or Fr Simon.

* Are you concerned for the plight of Christians in Nigeria? A genocide is taking place.
