

POLICY FOR BAPTISM IN ST MARGARET MARY PARISH CHURCH

As you are seeking the baptism of your child in the Roman Catholic Church, the following guidelines are presented to help you embark upon this journey of faith with Christ and his Church.

A. The Sanctifying Role of the Church Through Baptism, God enables us to participate in his life in Jesus Christ and makes us his children. It is through this sacrament that we receive the Holy Spirit and become members of the People of God, of the Body of Christ, which is the Church. Baptism becomes our commitment to grow in this new life and to strive to acquire spiritual maturity. By baptism, God purifies us from sin.

Baptism is the sacrament of faith which has the Risen Christ as its source, and it is the offer of salvation for all people. Intimately linked to Confirmation and to Eucharist, Baptism is, with these two sacraments, Christian Initiation. The child is baptized in the faith of their parents, godparents and of the Church.

B. Basic Guidelines and Information for Infant/young children Baptism

PARENTS are responsible for bringing their child to the Sacrament of Baptism as soon after birth as possible. Except in case of necessity, the parish church is the usual place of baptism. In order that a child be baptized, it is necessary that the parents' consent, or at least one of them, or someone legally standing in their place, and that there is reasonable hope that the child will be brought up in the Catholic Faith. At least one parent has to be Catholic: if this is not the case, then before any discussion about infant baptism can take place, non-Catholic parents who are baptised Protestants will have to attend a 20 week course to prepare for confirmation and reception into the Catholic faith.

GODPARENTS: A person may only have one or two godparents (also called sponsors); if two are chosen, they must be male and female. The maximum number of godparents is four, and one of those four should be a regularly practising Catholic.

In order for someone to be eligible as a godparent they must be chosen by the parents, have the ability and the intention to fulfil the role, be at least 16 years of age, and be a confirmed Roman Catholic, who has already received the Most Holy Eucharist, is leading a life in harmony with the Catholic Faith (including Marriage) and will be a good role model for the one being baptized, and be neither the father nor the mother of the child. Godparents promise to help the parents in their duty of training the child in the practice of the faith and in bringing up the child to keep God's commandments as Christ taught us, by loving God and our neighbour.

A baptized person who belongs to another Christian community may be admitted only as a "Christian witness" (not a godparent) provided that there is at least one Roman Catholic godparent who fulfils the above criteria. A non-baptized person cannot be a witness (Code of Canon Law, cc. 872-874; Catechism of the Catholic Church 1255).

C. Baptismal Preparation in your Parish: In order to respect your request for the baptism of your child, you are invited to follow closely the stages of preparation offered below:

- Check you are living in the parish of St Margaret Mary. If you are not, you will need to talk this through with the parish priest and you will need to gain written permission from the parish priest of the parish in which you reside.
- Come to mass (6.30pm Saturday or 10am Sunday) for four occasions and pick up a baptism form.
- Introduce yourself to the parish priest if you do not already know him personally.
- Open yourself to the invitation to actively join the faith community of your parish. If you are not registered parishioners, please consider becoming involved in the prayer and celebration of the Sunday Eucharistic community. Only with regular attendance at mass can the seed of faith sown at baptism begin to germinate.

While baptismal preparation varies from parish to parish, you will be invited to participate in some manner of faith formation prior to the baptism of your child. This may take the form of a meeting(s) with the pastor, pastoral assistant, or participation in a baptismal preparation session for parents. It is extremely important to take your faith-life seriously because, before God, you have taken on an awesome responsibility for the salvation of another—your own child! Your commitment and openness to baptismal preparation will help develop the faith-life of your child as they mature.

D. Other Information

Marital Status: Your marital status will be clarified during the baptismal preparation process. Baptism is not denied if the parents are unmarried or not married in the Roman Catholic Church. However, there may be reason to postpone Baptism if parents are not practicing the Faith, or have no intention of living a Catholic life in harmony with the Gospel. If your status is not in harmony with the Roman Catholic understanding of sacramental marriage, please inquire as to how we may help you enter into proper sacramental marriage or, if need be, seek a declaration of nullity by the Church.

All of the above information applies to Baptism of an infant or young child only. If you have a child to be baptized who is 11 or older, you and they will receive different preparation. Having sufficient understanding, the preparation will now be for the full complement of the Sacraments of Initiation: Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist.

Those children already baptized in other Christian communities will be prepared to make a profession of faith into the Catholic Church and will receive the sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation in the rite of Reception into Full Communion with the Catholic Church.
